Unboxing Europe

Young, European, Empowered? Imagining Political Participation in Europe 2040.

With kind support of the European Union

Sunday, 09. November 2025 | 05:00 pm –
Wednesday, 12. November 2025 | 01:00 pm

What does meaningful political participation look like for young people in Europe? And what could it look like in the future?

At a time when democratic values are under pressure and many young people feel unheard, this seminar offers space to explore how youth can help shape European democracy – today and tomorrow.

Through expert inputs, interactive activities, and direct exchange with EU representatives, participants will examine current opportunities and challenges for youth participation. Building on these insights, they will engage in a Vision Workshop (Zukunftswerkstatt) to develop creative visions and concrete ideas for strengthening youth political engagement by 2040.

Combining political education with creativity and action, this seminar empowers young voices to rethink democracy – and take part in shaping Europe's future.
